President’s Message

It’s truly hard to believe that September is already upon us and that the community’s summer festivities have seen another season – and a good and productive summer it has been!

First, I would like to send a heartfelt thank you to Foundation Board members and friends who helped my staff and I at the Outdoorsman Restaurant make the Vines, Rhythm & Brews Fest a resounding success over Musky Jamboree Weekend. I would like to give a special thank you to event sponsors for your support – The Mason family of Peeplelures, Dr. Mindy Wolf of Achilles Foot & Ankle Clinic, the Mauzer family on behalf of Citizens Bank, Adam Redman of Redman Realty, and the Woods family of Quality Heating in Minocqua. I would also like to thank the community businesses who donated raffle prizes for the event. We more than doubled attendance and funds raised at the event for the BJ Community Restricted Endowment Fund. Check out “In Case You Missed It!” for photos of the Fest.

With September comes the 53rd Annual Colorama Dinner. The BJCF and other area service groups who sponsor the dinner are completing last minute preparations for the dinner held this next weekend. We are excited to announce that the event looks to be a sell out! Excitement is also growing over the Old Towne canoe raffle drawing that will be held at the dinner. Hope to see you there!

The BJCF's “Neighbor of the Foundation” Program is off to a good start – with 32 “neighbors” contributing approximately $1,100 as of this writing. Read more on Foundation Neighbors under “News Shorts”. Contributions to the Neighbor's Fund support BJCF's operations and ensure the fulfillment of our mission. You can become a Neighbor by making a minimum donation of $25 per year. To join, see the mailer in the BJCF brochure attached with newsletter.

Thank you again to all of you who support our organization! In the meantime, enjoy the crisp air and beauty of our area, and I look forward to seeing you around town!

Treasurer's Report

The BJCF continues to keep ahead of its expenses, as it grows its Neighbors Program, and follows its strategic plan to raise funds for the BJ Community Restricted Endowment Fund.

Proceeds from the Outdoorsman's Vines, Rhythm & Brews Fest totaled approximately $3,000 and, as of Sept 17, the Foundation has raised almost $12,500 from raffle ticket sales. The BJCF Restricted Endowment Fund, managed by the Community Foundation of North Central Wisconsin, currently has a balance of approximately $7,200.

In addition, board members, community service organizations, and friends of the Foundation have donated their time and personal expenses for many of the Foundation's activities. A heartfelt thank you to all contributors!

Colorama Dinner and Historic Canoe Raffle Drawing Update

Final preparations for the Colorama Dinner to be held Saturday, September 22, at Camp Manito-wish's Nash Hall are underway. The Chamber of Commerce is reporting that the 275 tickets available for the dinner are selling quickly and that the dinner is likely to be a sellout, possibly before the night of the dinner. The family style chicken dinner, including a wild game stew, will be served at 6:00pm sharp. Music during dinner will be provided by Ben Westphal. The evening will also include the drawing of door prizes using guests' dinner ticket stubs. However, the highlight of the evening will be drawing the lucky tickets for the Foundation's season long raffle.

Grand prize is a 1947 Old Towne canoe with paddle, restored and donated by BJCF board member Dave Osborn, proprietor of Little Lakes Canoe Restoration and Guide Service. First prize is a weekend getaway in Boulder Junction; second prize is a $500 gift certificate from Peepelures of BJ; and third prize is a day in Boulder Junction. The grand prize winning ticket will be drawn first and then held and announced after the first, second, and third prize winners are announced. A detailed description of how the raffle will be conducted follows on the last page of this newsletter. Raffle tickets will be on sale at the dinner until 6:30 pm.

There will be accommodations at Nash Hall for anyone who wants to witness the raffle drawing, but is not attending the dinner. Good luck, everyone!

BJCF Presents Donation to Boulder Junction Volunteer Fire Department

In recognition of the growing community partnership between the Foundation and the BJ Volunteer Fire Department, BJCF Board members presented the fire department with a $100 donation during an August BJ Lions flea market. This summer Foundation Board members and friends volunteered to help the BJ Volunteer Fire Department at their annual Giant Chicken Barbeque in July. The fire department also invited the Foundation to sell raffle tickets at the event. It was perfect weather for the barbeque that was well attended by locals and visitors.

Do you have time to volunteer?

We are always in need of friends to participate on committees and assist in the activities of the BJCF. From helping at events such as Vines Rhythm & Brews and the Colorama Dinner to joining a committee that interests you. If you are interested, please speak to a Director or send us an email at: info@boulderjunctioncf.org.

In Case You Missed It!

Pictures are worth a 1000 words! Amy Wheeler and Outdoorsman staff, good weather, event sponsors, hard working and enthusiastic volunteers, and generous and supportive friends who care about the BJ community made Vines, Rhythm & Brews an enjoyable and successful fest this year.

Boulder Junction Community Foundation 2012 Canoe Raffle
Rules for Conduct of Raffle on September 22, 2012

1. This raffle is conducted in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 563, Wisconsin Statutes 563.03 et seq., and Game 44, Wisconsin Administrative Code, 44.01 et seq.
2. The winner of a raffle prize is responsible for all federal, state or local taxes, if any, associated with the award of the prize and agrees to co-operate with the Boulder Junction Community Foundation in the filing of any tax notices required by law.
3. If a winner declines the award of a prize, that ticket stub shall be held out and shall not be returned to the drawing container.
4. The order for the drawing of the winning raffle tickets is as follows:
 - (a) The First (1st) ticket drawn from the drawing container shall be awarded the Grand Prize 1947 Old Town Canoe and Paddle. This ticket shall be drawn and placed in open view of the public but the winner's name shall not be announced until the conclusion of the raffle.
 - (b) The Second (2nd) ticket drawn from the drawing container shall be immediately announced and awarded the Third (3rd) Prize One Day Adventure in Boulder Junction.
 - (c) The Third (3rd) ticket drawn from the drawing container shall be immediately announced and awarded the Second (2nd) Prize $500.00 Gift Certificate from Peeplelures.
 - (d) The Fourth (4th) ticket drawn from the drawing container shall be immediately announced and awarded the First (1st) Prize Weekend Getaway in Boulder Junction.
 - (e) Immediately after the drawing of the ticket for the First (1st) Prize, the identity of the holder of the First (1st) ticket drawn shall be publicly announced and that person shall be awarded the 1947 Old Town Canoe and Paddle.
5. Any and all decisions of the Boulder Junction Community Foundation concerning the conduct of the raffle shall be final and binding upon all participants.
6. The Boulder Junction Community Foundation is not responsible for any lost or misplaced prize certificate. It is the responsibility of the winner of the "Weekend Getaway" and the "One Day Adventure" to make all arrangements with the providers of the certificates. The responsibilities of the Boulder Junction Community Foundation terminate with the award of the prize.
